A colored child died at 1111 South Tenth street several days ago and its mother had been keeping the remains until she procured money from relatives to enable her to bury the body. FEW INJURED

In the Wreck at Fowlke's Friday Night, Last.

Interesting Railroad News of Today—A Few Changes.

The report relative to the number of injured in the Fowlke, Tenn., wreck Saturday was exaggerated. No one was killed and only two men injured. They were Conductor Moore and Flagman Phelps and the injuries were slight, both men receiving slight bruises.

Clarence Williams, for eight years in the freight office, of the Illinois Central at Fulton, has been promoted to the position of abstract clerk in Freight Agent J. R. Sampson's office at Memphis. Mack Bauman gets his place at Fulton.

This morning the local I. C. wrecker was sent to Paducah Junction to pick up a small derailment. No one was reported injured and the main line is not blocked.

Postman Fred Acker left yesterday for Tiptonville, Tenn., to attend the Brower-Barkley wedding.

TURNS UP ALIVE

Man Mourned as Dead to Visit His People.

Worked in Paducah a Short Time After His Disappearance.

Antoine Neumann, who left his home in Louisville thirty-four years ago, and who until a few months ago was mourned as dead, will return here next Sunday morning to visit his mother and other relatives in Louisville. Neumann left his home in 1869, when boy 18 years old. He stopped at Paducah and worked several months, and then continued his wanderings until he reached New Haven, Conn., where he secured employment in a clock works, of which he is now the proprietor.

For some time after his departure his relatives waited in vain for news of his whereabouts and finally gave him up as dead. A few months ago a letter was received from him stating that he was alive and would return to his old home on a visit in June. Since the receipt of the letter the relatives here have been planning a big reception. Mr. Neumann will be accompanied by his wife and family of eight children.

NO CLUE YET.

IT IS PROBABLE THE STATE OF ILLINOIS WILL OFFER A REWARD.

Mr. E. D. Thurman of the St. Nicholas hotel yesterday received two letters, one from the chief of police at Alton, Ill., where his brother was murdered several weeks ago, and one from a state official relative to what disposition the state of Illinois will make towards ordering a reward for the capture of the murderer.

The chief of police reported that nothing had been secured in the way of a clue, but that he hoped to be able to report something more encouraging within a few days. Another letter stated that the matter of a reward had been referred by Acting Governor McKenzie to State Attorney Brown for recommendations and it is thought that the state attorney will recommend a reward.

HUSBANDS STREET.

COMMITTEE TO MEET TODAY TO CONSIDER OPENING IT.

A meeting of the street committee will be held this afternoon at the city hall to take up the matter of opening Husbands street from Third to Sixth. There is a house being built on some property the city will need for opening the street, and the committee is to consider whether it will be advisable to condemn it and secure it at a fair valuation or to build the street crooked.

AN EXTRA SESSION

President Roosevelt to Call One for November.

Democrats Will be Given a Chance to Express Their Views.

Washington, June 22—Congressional callers at the White House during the last two days have renewed assurances from the president that it is his intention to call the congress in extra session November 9.

The program of the Republican leaders will be, unless there is change in their present indications, to permit the Democrats all the opportunity they desire during the extra session to discuss the questions of tariff and reciprocity and kindred subjects. After the regular session begins little opportunity will be allowed them. The Republican policy will be to keep the tariff from attaining a top-notch place from December until the close of congress. What the policy and attitude will be on the tariff in the presidential election will depend on future developments and on the position of the Democrats next year.

Senators and representatives regret that their vacation will be cut short by a month, but hope that the extra session will be productive of results. The president, of course, shares this hope.

PRES. HAYMAN BACK

NO SETTLEMENT YET IN THE STRIKE.

Mr. Charles Hayman, president of the local ship carpenters' union, and several fellow workmen returned from Evansville yesterday, where they had been at work on several barges being built. Harry Lloyd has been acting in Hayman's place during the latter's absence. There is nothing new reported in the strike matter, the union men still holding out against the proprietors, who refuse to accede to their demands.

POLICE COURT.

ONLY FOUR DRUNKS ON THE DOCKET TODAY.

Attorney D. A. Cross is acting as judge of the police court during the absence of Judge D. L. Sanders, who has gone to Dawson for ten days or two weeks. This morning there were only four cases, all for plain drunks. They were Frank Potts, Wilber Heffick, A. Briggs and Char Liberty, all of whom were fined $1 and costs.

Mrs. Will Parker, daughter, Miss Tirza, and son Ralph, will leave Wednesday for Terre Haute, Ind., to join Mr. Parker, who was formerly bookkeeper here for the Hiram Blow stave factory just here. He has a similar position with the company in Terre Haute.

Paducah Defeats New Decatur—Cairo and Henderson Win Games.

A NEW SCHEDULE TOMORROW

A NUMBER OF REVIVALS ON

Blamed by Ministerial Association, Which Met Today.

Good Congregations Were Out Yesterday at the Various Services Held in the City.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

New Decatur at Paducah.

Clarksville at Jackson.

Vincennes at Henderson.

Hopkinsville at Cairo.

Other K. I. T. Games.

RUSIE PITCHES AGAIN.

Henderson, June 22.—Henderson 1, Vincennes 0. Batteries—McNutt and Warner; Rosic, Shepard and Kelly.

The once mighty Amer Rusie twirled the first four innings and Henderson players could not do anything with benders from his lame arm, which is not yet in condition. He would not pitch longer. Rusie says his arm is coming back to him and he will be doing a stout regularly in the box before the season is over. This was his first performance since the season opened, his regular position being right field for Vincennes.

GOOD GAME AT CAIRO.

Cairo, Ill., June 22—Cairo again defeated the Hopkinsville team.

Score: Cairo, 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 x 2 6 2

Hopkinsville, 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 4 1

Batteries: For Cairo, Hollcross and Street; for Hopkinsville, Reed and Street.

NO GAME AT JACKSON.

Jackson, Tenn., June 22—No game today on account of rain.

A prettier game than that yesterday between Paducah and New Decatur is seldom seen anywhere. One of the largest crowds of the season was at Wallace park to witness the contest, which lasted eleven innings and was full of ginger. It was largely a pitcher's battle, and Freeman broke the local record by striking out nineteen men. Kenny Murray won the game for Paducah by a well-placed drive to left field which brought in a run in the eleventh inning, making the score 4 to 3. Paducah's men were well placed, and only one error is marked down against them. Sawyer, New Decatur's twirler, was easily found, but on account of excellent fielding of the visitor only nine hits were made. It seemed hard to land squarely on his curves, while when Freeman was rapped, which wasn't often, the ball seemed to be hit center, and New Decatur succeeded in getting eight hits.

TRADING ON NOTHING

That's What "Old Gorgon Graham" Calls Speculation

From "Letters From a Self Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer.

Now, I want to give you that tip on the market. There are several reasons why it isn't safe for you to trade on "change" just now, but the particular one is that Graham & Co. will fire you if you do. Trading on margin is a good deal like paddling around the edge of the old swimming pool—it seems safe and easy at first, but before a fellow knows it he has stepped off the edge into deep water. The wheat pit is only thirty feet across, but it reaches clear down to hell. And trading on margin means trading on the ragged edge of nothing. When a man buys, he's buying something that the other fellow hasn't got. When a man sells, he's selling something that he hasn't got. And it's been my experience that the net profit on nothing is nil. When a speculator wins, he don't stop till he loses, and when he loses he can't stop till he wins.

You have been in the packing business long enough now to know that it takes a full thirty seconds to lose his hide; and if you'll believe me when I tell you that they can skin a bear just as quick on "change," you won't have a board of trade Indian using your pelt for a rug during the long winter months.

Because you are the son of a pork packer you may think that you know a little more than the next fellow about paper pork. There's nothing in it. The poorest men on earth are the relations of millionaires. When I sell futures on "change" they're against hogs that are travelling into dry salt at the rate of one a second, and if the market goes up on me I've got the solid meat to deliver. But, if you lose, the only part of the hog which you can deliver is the squeal.

I wouldn't bear down so hard on this matter if money was the only thing that a fellow could lose on "change." But if a clerk sells pork and the market goes down he's mighty apt to get a lot of ills with holes in them and bad habits as the small change of his profits. And if the market goes up he's likely to go short his self respect to win back his money.

I dwell a little on this matter of speculation because you've got to live next door to the board of trade all your life, and it's a safe thing to know something about a neighbor's dogs before you try to pat them. Sure Things, Straight Tips and Dead Clinches will come running out to meet you, wagging their tails and looking as innocent as if they hadn't just killed a lamb, but they'll bite. The only safe road to follow is speculation leads straight away from the board of trade on the dead run.

Of course the board of trade and every other commercial exchange have their legitimate uses, but if you need to know just now is that speculation by a fellow who never owns more pork than a time than he sees on his breakfast plate isn't one of them. When you become a packer you may go on "change" as a trader; until then you can go there only as a sucker.

Mrs. Russell Sage Objects.

Mrs. Russell Sage objects emphatically to the newspaper story that her husband's movements sometimes bring upon the family. Her reasons for objecting are many.

It was last summer, when the great financier was living at Cedarhurst, L. I., and was suddenly taken sick. Mrs. Sage was expounding on the annoyances caused her by the constant visits of reporters.

"I do not like their coming down here," she said. "Mr. Sage is here to rest, and I will not have him annoyed by the papers. Why can't these men see him at his office and not come here to bother him when he should be resting. Why, when Mr. Sage was sick a few weeks ago these men were running down here all the time, and I had to pay an awfully large bill at the clipping agency last month."—New York Mail and Express.

GRAUSTARK

...By...
GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

When Anguish announced that his principal chose pistols, a strange gleam crept into the eyes of the Apalainians, and they seemed satisfied. Colonel Attaboan acted as interpreter during this short but very important interview, which was carried on in the Apalain language. Lorry sat on the window sill steadfastly gazing into the night. The visitors departed soon, and it was understood that Prince Lorenz would descend to meet Mr. Lorry at 8 o'clock on the next morning in the valley beyond the castle, two miles from town. There was no law prohibiting duels in Graustark.

"Well, you're in for it, old man," said Anguish gloomily, his chin in his hands as he fastened melancholy eyes upon his friend.

"Don't worry about me, Harry. There's only one way for this thing to purple, his anxious eyes darting first toward the group above and then toward the bewildered Americans.

"What's the matter?" demanded Lorry.

"There! See!" cried Dauglass, and even as he spoke a conflict began at the head of the stairs, the police, augmented by a few soldiers, struggling against a howling, enraged mass of Apalainians. Dauglass dragged his reluctant charges through a small door, and they found themselves in the baggage room of the hotel. Despite their queries he offered no explanation, but rushed them along, passing out of the opposite door, down a short stairway and into a side street. A half dozen police guards were awaiting them, and before they could catch the faintest idea of what it all meant they were running with the officers through an alley as if pursued by demons.

"Now, what in thunder does this mean?" panted Lorry, attempting to slacken the pace. He and Anguish were just beginning to regain their breath.

"Do not stop! Do not stop!" wheezed Dauglass. "You must get to a place of safety. We cannot prevent something dreadful happening if you are caught."

"If we are caught!" cried Anguish.

"Why, what have we done?"

"Unhanded me, Baron Dauglass. This is an outrage!" shouted Lorry.

"For heaven's sake, be calm! We are befriending you. When we reach the tower, where you will be safe, I shall explain," gasped the panting chief of police. A few moments later they were inside the prison gates, angry, fatigued.

"Is this a ploy to prevent the duel?" demanded Lorry, turning upon the chief, who had dropped limply into a chair and was mopping his brow. When he could find his breath enough to answer, Dauglass did so, and he might as well have thrown a bombshell at their feet.

"There'll be no duel. Prince Lorenz is dead!"

"Dead!" gasped the others.

"Found dead in his bed, stabbed to the heart!" exclaimed the chief. "We have saved you from his friends, gentlemen, but I must say that you are still in a tight place."

He then related to them the whole story. Just before 6 o'clock Mizrox had gone to the prince's room to prepare him for the duel. The door was closed, but unlocked, as he found after repeated knockings. Lorenz was lying on the bed, undressed and covered with blood. The horrified duke made a hasty examination and found that he was dead. A dagger had been driven to his heart as he slept. The hotel was aroused, the police were called, and the excitement was at its highest pitch when the two friends came from their room a few minutes after 6.

"But what have we to do with this dreadful affair? Why are we rushed off here like criminals?" asked Lorry, a feeling of cruel gladness growing out of the knowledge that Lorenz was dead and that the princess was freed from her compact.

"My friend," said Dauglass slowly, "you are accused of the murder."

Lorry was too much stunned to be angry, too weak to protest. For some moments after the blow fell he and Anguish were speechless. Then came the protestations, the rage and the threats, through all of which Dauglass sat calmly. Finally he sought to quiet them, partially succeeding.

"Mr. Lorry, the evidence is very strong against you, but you shall not be unjustly treated. You are not a prisoner as yet. In Graustark a man who is accused of murder and who was not seen by any one to commit the crime cannot be legally arrested until an accuser shall go before the princess, who is also high priestess, and swear on his life that he knows the guilty man. The man who so accuses agrees to forfeit his own life in case the other is proved innocent. If you are to be charged with the murder of the prince, some one must go before the princess and take oath—his life against yours. I am holding you here, sir, because it is the only place in which you are safe. Lorenz's friends would have torn you to pieces had we not found you first. You are not prisoners, and you may depart if you think it wise."

"But how can they accuse me? I knew nothing of the murder until I reached this place," cried Lorry, stopping short in his restless walk before the little baron.

"So you say, but—"

"If you accuse me, I'll kill you!" whispered Lorry, holding himself tense. Anguish caught and held him.

A Bald-Headed Monarch.
Edward VII. is the first English sovereign to figure on the coinage as bald-headed. It is very possible that several of his predecessors had less of nature's crown than his majesty and that when taken to pieces for the night they became almost unrecognizable instead of remaining in the ever-same condition of present-day kings and emperors. However, their coinage represents these bygone monarchs in caps and crowns or voluminous wigs and wreaths or skillfully arranged toupees that are very like the genuine thing.

MR. BRYAN STANDS FIRM.

Almost simultaneous with the virtual declaration of Mr. Cleveland that he has no expectation of being a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president, Mr. Bryan announces that he is still for what he was for three and seven years ago. He is for free silver at the old ratio, for the platforms of 1896 and 1900, for a revenue for tariff, and is against "imperialism." He is not inclined to "crawfish" on any proposition, which shows that he and his followers will make a fight to carry their beliefs into the next Democratic national platform.

The Globe-Democrat doubtless reflects the sentiment of the Republican party, when it says about Mr. Bryan's latest expression:

"All this will suit the Republicans party. It would give joy to the Republicans to fight next year's battle on the issues of the two latest presidential canvases, plus imperialism, which is somewhat newer fed. If Mr. Bryan can coax or coerce his party into adopting his creed in 1904 he will do a good service to the Republicans. While there is not much likelihood that Mr. Bryan himself will be the candidate next year—at least not the candidate of the regular Democracy—he could do a good work for the Republicans, for sound politics and the cause of American prosperity by instilling his ideas into a sufficient number of Democrats to dominate the convention next year."

The court of appeals' decision rendered Saturday sustaining the Louisville primary is a black eye for Chairman Young, but indirectly a victory for the state central committee, which backs him up in everything he does. The opinion holds that the power to choose local committees was delegated to the state central committee by the convention, but that this power cannot be delegated to Chairman Young or any other man. It further holds that the state central committee has the sole power to decide all controversies between local committees, which shows the Democrats that they are completely under the domination of the committee after all, and that in reality the committee is virtually the Democratic party.

The Republicans all over the state are taking unusual interest in the elections this year, and it is to be hoped that every county will send instructed delegations to the state convention July 15. More danger lurks in uninstructed delegations than anything else in making convention nominations. It would be well for every county to instruct its delegates, whichever candidate may be the choice of the voters. This will enable none of the politicians to manipulate the delegation from a county for selfish purposes and probably have it support a candidate who does not suit the voters of that county. The safest and best plan is for every county to instruct its delegates.

The court of appeals' decision in the Louisville primary case has widened the breach in the Louisville Democracy, and the indications are that if the losing faction does not have out a ticket of its own to split the Democratic vote it will come out solid for the Republican candidates. More than that, the defeated faction appears to blame the governor for its misfortune, and will probably kifte the whole state ticket. There will be few odds-on favorites among the Democratic entries this year.

The new dynasty in Servia has not been received so well by other nations as by the Servians themselves. Diplomatic representatives of England and Holland have been directed by their governments to withdraw from the regicide capital, and the United States may do likewise. The principal grievance the nations have is that the assassins have not been, and to all appearances will not be, punished.

The Mayfield Messenger believes in an honest confession. It says: "Our grape-vine line must have been out of whack yesterday when it brought the startling information that the Jett-White jury had brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed their punishment at death."

The Democrats are acting a little queer of late. The supreme court of Mississippi has decided that the Continental Tobacco Co. is not a trust, and an Iowa Democratic convention unanimously tabled resolutions condemning trusts.

Sparring exhibitions have been barred by the court of appeals, but the soldiers are still hanging around Jackson. They don't allow any fist fighting in Kentucky.

The verdict in the Jett-White case was a disappointment, but one consolation is, the accused are still in jail, which helps some.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Washington, D. C., June 22—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent June 18 to 22, warm wave 17 to 21, cool wave 20 to 24.

Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about June 23, cross west of Rockies by close of 24, great central valleys 25 to 27, Eastern states 28.

This period will belong to a period of very high temperatures, in the midst of a drought and at a time when severe storms may be expected.

In a few localities great downpours of rain will occur, but generally not much rain and the drought will not be broken. In many places the corn crop will suffer for want of rain.

First disturbance of July will reach Pacific coast about June 29, cross west of Rockies by close of 30, great central valleys July 1 to 3, Eastern states 4.

Where the Toddy Went.

Here is a characteristic story of Captain, afterwards General George Pickett, famous at Gettysburg. It was at the time of the disputes between England and America as to the boundary line between British Columbia and Washington territory. Capt. Pickett had just mixed himself a toddy, when his attention was arrested suddenly by a courier, whose message caused him to mount immediately and ride off, leaving the drink behind him. He was gone some hours. When he returned the empty glass was on his comp table, whereupon ensued the following colloquy:

"Orderly."

"Yes, sir."

"Where's that toddy?"

"Threw it away, sir; thought you had done with it, sir."

"Where did you throw it; down your —— throat?"

"Yes, sir; down my —— throat, sir," accompanied by a regulation salute.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Stonework Resisted Gases.

A French scientist visiting the vines of St. Pierre, Martinique, notes that while much of the stone masonry is well preserved, every vestige of stone-work and other metals was destroyed by the fearful blasts of hot gases that came from Mt. Pelee, nothing left but a black powder. Evidently some extremely rapid chemical action took place, which changed the metals into oxides, etc.

Paducah—Freeman went out from second to first. Clifford hit by pitched ball. Langsford flew out to second. Murray rapped a liner to left and scored Clifford, winning the game.

Sunday morning the Coca Cola and Pepsiola played a match game, resulting in a victory for the latter by a score of 6 to 4, ten innings. The bat was heavy on the Pepsiola side, but the Coca Cola fielding outclassed the victorious. Dicko's pitching won out for the Pepsiolas.

COLORED CLUB LEAVES.

The colored baseball club of this city left this morning over the N. C. and St. L. road on the excursion train for Jackson, Tenn., to play the colored team at that place. The local team has a reputation for fast ball playing and will doubtless bring back a scalp or two. The team returns to night and will probably play Evansville again soon, the home team going to that city.

BASE HITS.

Some of the boys in the trees yesterday had megaphones and cow bells.

Freeman is a good pitcher and it is to be hoped that he will not allow the fans to spoil him.

Willie LeCompte continues to play an errorless game and do a great deal of the hard hitting.

Kenny Murray is the old standby and his hit yesterday in the last inning made him more solid than ever. LeCompte is playing at a disadvantage at third base. His game, however, is much better than any third baseman we have had this season.

Freeman is listed as a National leaguer next season. If he continues his fast ball this season and next he certainly will climb the ladder fast.

Cairo comes Tuesday for three games. Needless to say we expect to take all six of the games from the Egyptians, and the rooters' club will turn out full force.

Several Paducah men went to the ball game at Cairo yesterday and say it was one of the hottest games they have seen in several years. It seems Cairo has a fast set of ball players.

Potts, New Decatur's second baseman, does good work and it is likely will stay here and sign with Paducah. Sawyer, who is said to be one of the best pitchers in the league, will also probably stay.

Hedges will pitch today if a double-header is played, Wilson being the pitcher to work in the first game. If only one game is played Wilson will be used and Hedges will go in with Cairo's first game tomorrow.

The Rounders played the Klondikes yesterday morning at the I. C. depot grounds and defeated them by a score of 14 to 9, eleven innings. The Rounders piled in five scores in the last half of the eleventh, winning the game.

Rooters are all right, and the long paper megaphones they carry are all right in their way, but they ought to be kept out of the grandstand, where they are a constant source of complaint to the ladies. The boys poke them down over the ladies' heads and sometimes force them to move.

Dan O'Connor of the Notre Dame team, one of the fastest third basemen of the Western league, arrived this morning from Chicago and will play in this afternoon's game. He is a fast ball player. Gage will follow tomorrow, having been located in another city.

Freeman seemed to have been easily found in one inning yesterday, but it is accounted for by the fact that he had just come in from running bases. Freeman was out of wind and could not summon up his speed. Rusie says that Freeman's underhand ball "is a winner, but that it will last but a few seasons." Freeman says: "I don't know so much about that."

President Weille announced yesterday to the spectators in the grandstand that only the most orderly conduct would be tolerated, and that no one under the influence of liquor would be admitted, and if he got in by chance he would be put out and his money refunded as soon as it was discovered. He also asked the rooters to make as little noise as possible at the Sunday games, which request they complied with.

POWERFUL

A PURE FOOD DRINK HAS GREAT SUSTAINING POWER.

The sustaining power of Postum Coffee when properly cooked is greater than most people imagine, and it is well illustrated in the story told by a young Texas woman, who says: "I almost lived on Postum Cereal Coffee for over a month and there was over a week I did not eat anything at all, but just drank the food drink Postum, and yet I grew stronger and gained weight."

"Our family physician examined Postum and decided to use it altogether in place of coffee. We althithink it has no equal as a nourishment for the sick, for besides being pleasant to the taste it is so strengthening. My father and mother have always been coffee drinkers and suffered all kinds of troubles from coffee until about a year ago a neighbor was praising Postum and mother decided to try it."

"They improved at once and have drank Postum ever since and mother, who used to be bothered with nervousness and sleeplessness particularly, is in splendid health now. She says the change came entirely from drinking Postum and leaving off coffee."

AN UNIQUE CLUB

Marshall County Comes to the Front With the Fly Club.

A Novel Plan of Farmers to Get Rid of Destructive Pests.

Among the unique organizations that deserve a place in history is the "Fly club," of Marshall county, a society that has for its motto the axiom "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and its object the indiscriminate extermination of tobacco flies.

The club was organized a short time ago, and the monthly dues amount to 20 cents per member. This is paid to the treasurer, and is for the creation of a fund which will go at the end of the season to the farmer who has killed the largest number of tobacco flies.

As it is known to everybody but the unsophisticated town fellow, tobacco flies lay eggs that hatch and make tobacco worms, which destroy the tobacco. The worms then go into the ground and come out a fly the following year. The object is to kill the flies, prevent the eggs and consequently decimate the ranks of the destructive tobacco worm.

The farmers kill every fly they can find. This is a good season for them, as they frequently are found about flowers. They are taken to the secretary every week at the regular meeting of the "Fly club," dead or alive, and each member is only given credit for the number he brings, the greatest number at the end of the season to draw the entire membership fund.

A large number of Marshall county farmers belong to the club, and there is considerable interest in it and its achievements. At present each member has a large number of flies to his credit, and by the end of the season the total promises to reach into the hundreds of thousands.

SHORTAGE IN RAILS

The Factories Cannot Supply the Demand.

It is Feared the Expansion of Railroad Industry Will Be Impaired.

SOME ROADS NOT AFFECTED

A scarcity of rails is confronting the large railroads all over the country. Indications are that the mills, if run to their full capacity, will be unable to supply the demand for new construction and for repairs. It is estimated carefully that the supply will fall 400,000 tons short of the demand and the need may be even greater. It means that many of the roads will find themselves powerless to make new construction and repairs that they now intend.

"The local lines will not feel the need so much," said a local railroad man yesterday. "The roads here are sufficiently well supplied for the work that they contemplate, but we have heard reliably that roads for other sections will experience great inconvenience."

The prospective shortage has led the managers of all lines that will need a large supply to begin early negotiations with the mills. It is understood that Harriman has contracted with the United States Steel Corporation for 100,000 tons for the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific, but no announcement is yet at hand of the conclusion of other contracts. It is said the Gould system will need from 75,000 to 100,000 tons, the Rock Island and the Frisco will need in excess of 100,000 tons, and the New York Central and the Pennsylvania will jointly require 150,000. As the latter company can count upon securing 60 per cent. of its requirements from its own mills, it will not be in the market for more than 25,000 tons. It is estimated the Morgan lines will require more steel the coming year than any other group, but, so far as learned, no contracts have been let. These are only a few of the lines or systems that will be in the market for rails. The output of rails in 1902 was 2,876,293 tons. Under existing conditions, taking into consideration the influence of the trouble with laborers, etc., it is not likely the output this year will be more than 2,800,000 tons, while at least 3,200,000 will be needed to satisfy the demands. The price, it is understood, will remain at $28 per ton.

The history of the steel rail manufacture in the United States during the past 35 years is interesting. In 1869 the amount of rails rolled was 8,616 tons, and the price per ton $132.25 while the duty on foreign rails was 45 per cent ad valorem. In 1880 the production rose to 852,198 tons, the price fell to $67.50, and the new tariff fixed the duty at $28 per ton. After rising to 1,284,067 tons in 1883, the production fell off the next year to 959,471 tons and the price fell from $67.50 to $48.50. Since then the rise has been gradual, till last year, when the output was 2,876,293 tons, with the selling price $28 per ton, and the duty on foreign rails $7.84 per ton.

SOON GET PAY.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE TO AUDIT CLAIMS THIS WEEK.

The Democratic executive committee will meet in Frankfort this week to audit claims for the primary held on May 9, and the election officers will soon thereafter receive their pay in those counties where they refused to serve for nothing. About $207 is due the Democrats of this county, and they have been trying to get it for some time. Chairman Morrison not long since drawing on State Chairman Young for the amount.

The Lord's Intermediary.

Along with the snug little fortunes that Deacon Jones had accumulated as the leading grocer of Gooseville Cove, his bump of self-esteem which was originally fairly large, had increased proportionately, until, as the richest man in the Cove, he felt himself entitled to considerable deference —its patron saint, in fact. When one day good old Parson Abbeek went to him for a subscription to home missions—which he got—he remarked: "Deacon, I can't help noticing that your fellow-citizens seem to hold you in high esteem."

"Wa-a-a, yis," replied the Deacon, complacently; "guess that's 'bout so. The Covers do look up to me Parson, that's a fact; and I—well, I look up to God!"

The meeting on July 6 will be the semi-annual gathering of the Kentucky and Tennessee board.

HURT IN ST. LOUIS.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "An automobile in which Dr. Given Campbell was riding was struck by a Delmar avenue car at King's highway and Delmar avenue. Dr. Campbell was hurled to the street and injured."

"He walked to the office of Dr. Edwin L. Apperson, 919 North Taylor Avenue, where it was found he had suffered a scalp wound, a bad cut on an arm and bruises about the face and body. Dr. Campbell was removed in a carriage to his home at 3429 Morgan street."

The injured man is well known in Paducah, where he has many relatives.

APPOINTED TO ANNAPOLIS. Congressman Clegg James has appointed Guess Dodds of Princeton to a naval cadetship at Annapolis and the young man is now studying for the examination.

A FLOATING PALACE

THE ST. LOUIS, FINEST BOAT AFLOAT, HERE SATURDAY.

President McKinley and Many Prominent Men Entertained on Her.

The palatial steamer City of St. Louis, which is larger than the Island Queen, was at the wharf of Paducah Saturday evening, and will return for an excursion Sunday.

While she is an excursion boat she is built on the exact lines of the floating palaces that plied the waters of the Mississippi before the war. To those who have never had an opportunity of seeing one of the monster side wheelers which Mark Twain tells about in his stories of the big river, even the sight of the City of St. Louis will be a treat. Her interior is one mass of white and gold and polished glass. She is by far the finest boat of her kind now afloat and will probably be the last of her kind to pay a visit to the local port.

The City of St. Louis is the flagship of the Anchor packet line. In 1897 she was selected as the official and reception boat for President McKinley and his staff when he paid a visit to New Orleans. It is probable that more distinguished men have ridden on the City of St. Louis than on any other boat now afloat.

Some idea of the boat may be gleaned from the following description: She has a capacity of 2,250 tons, is 305 feet long and 90 feet wide. The engine are 2,100 horse power and there are five boilers each 30 feet in length. It requires 80 tons of coal a day to feed the big furnaces. The cabin is 280 feet in length and each state room is ten feet square. All the furnishings of the boat are white and gold. She is lighted by hundreds of incandescent lights. It cost $190,000 to build the boat.

The boat is licensed to carry 7,000 people.

It is possible the big steamer will return for an excursion one day this week under the auspices of the Elks and arrangements have already been made for an excursion to Cairo Sunday on account of the ball game between Cairo and Paducah. The steamer will leave the wharf in time to reach Cairo about noon, and will bring the Paducah club home after the game.

SOCIALIST HERE.

PROMINENT MAN MAKING TOUR OF KENTUCKY.

Mr. John C. Chase, who has the distinction of being the first socialist mayor elected in the United States, is in Kentucky. Mr. Chase was a clerk in a store at Haverhill, Mass., years ago, when he was called upon to head the ticket of the socialist party, being elected and attaining national fame as a result. Mr. Chase is making a propaganda tour of the United States under the auspices of the national committee of the socialist party, and will fill several dates in Kentucky, possibly coming to Paducah.

The socialists in Kentucky are showing signs of unusual activity, for, in addition to Mr. Chase, they have had an agitator, W. C. Benton, touring the western part of the state.

TORN BY WILD BEAST.

New York, June 22—Mme. M. L. Morrell, a professional trainer of wild animals, was nearly torn to death by a 6 year old leopard while attempting to teach it tricks in one of the big cages of Bostock's animal show at Coney Island. The animal leaped on her back from above, and before it could be driven off had torn and scratched the woman almost fatally. Mme. Morrell was finally rescued by one of the lion men, who went into the cage and fought the beast off with a pitchfork.

6,000 MOORS KILLED.

Madrid, June 22—A Tangier, Morocco, dispatch states that in a battle at Annedinnas the troops under the Moorish minister of war lost 6,000 men. The minister of war represents the sultan in the war against the pretender.

EXCEED A BILLION

EXPORTS THE GREATEST KNOWN IN THE COUNTRY'S HISTORY.

The Imports of the Country Are Correspondingly Large—Year Now Ending.

MUCH LARGER THAN 1900

Eleven months' figures of the treasury bureau of statistics, now completed, show that the foreign commerce of the United States will be, in the year about to end, the largest in the history of the country. Imports will, for the first time, exceed a billion dollars, and exports will be larger than in any preceding year except 1901. The eleven months' figures which justify this assertion show that the imports of the eleven months ending with May were $943,597,194, and the exports $1,324,493,293. For the twelve months ending with May the imports are $1,016,712,218, and the exports $1,413,735,776. As the largest imports in any earlier fiscal year were $903,320,948, in 1902, it is quite apparent that the total imports of the present fiscal year will exceed those of any preceding year, and that they will also exceed a billion dollars, since they have not fallen below 73,000,000 in any month of the past year and are in the eleven months within fifty-seven millions of the billion dollar line.

As the largest exports of any preceding year, except 1901, were $1,394,483,012, in 1900, and those of the eleven months ending with May were $1,324,493,293, and the smallest exports of any month in the year were $8 million, it is apparent that when the month of June is added, the export total for the year will exceed that of 1900, and will pass the $1,400,000,000 line. The largest total commerce (by which is meant the imports and exports combined) of any earlier year was that of 1901, $2,310,397,156.

As the total imports and exports for the eleven months ending with May were $2,268,090,487, and the combined imports and of the lightest month of the present year were 182 millions, it is apparent that the commerce of the twelfth month added to the total already shown by the eleven months will make a grand total exceeding that of 1901, which showed the largest total of imports and exports combined.

Eyes

Did Not Close For a Week.

Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves very present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon so affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic, which quietes the nerves, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seem to stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $3000 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies." —W. H. HUGHES, Fox Creek, Ky.

GOOD BLOOD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

You know when rich, red blood is coursing through the veins, for it shows in the brightness of the eye, the beauty and clearness of the complexion, the smooth, fair skin, and robust, healthy constitution. It is good blood that imports strength and energy to the body and keeps it in a state of healthfulness and vigor. Good blood is the foundation of good health, and to be physically and mentally sound it must be kept pure and untainted.

I was in wretched health; my blood was in bad order, my gums being very much ulcerated. I began the use of S. S. S., and in a remarkably short time was sound and well. My appetite increased wonderfully and my food agreed with me. I think it is a fine family medicine.

MRS. M. B. DAVIDSON.

For three years I had Tetter on my hands. Part of the time the disease was in the form of running sores, very painful and causing me much discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetter had progressed too far to be cured, and that they could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S., and was completely cured. This was fifteen years ago, and I have never since seen any sign of my old trouble.

and it does it promptly and thoroughly. S. S. S. antidotes and removes from the blood all poisons and humors, and restores it to a normal, healthy condition, and invigorates and tones up the general health. When rich, red blood is again flowing through your veins all skin eruptions disappear, the appetite improves, the complexion clears and you get rid of those miserable depressing feelings and nervousness, and enjoy once more the blessings of good health. S. S. S. is nature's remedy for all blood and skin diseases. It contains no minerals whatever, but is guaranteed purely vegetable.

FIT TO WED.

ENGAGED TO OPERA SINGER AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, June 22—Bob Fitzsimmons tonight announced his engagement to Miss Julius May Gifford, prima donna of the When Johnny Comes Marching Home company, now playing at McVicker's theater.

"Yes, I am engaged," said lanky Bob this evening. "I met Miss Gifford only a few days ago. I fell in love with Miss Gifford as she appeared before the footlights and when I met her I asked her to marry me. We do not expect to wed for a year or two, because Miss Gifford has the promise of many stage honors, and I do not wish to interfere with her career at this time."

LEE TURNER CAUGHT

QUARTER HOUSE HERO IN JAIL AT PINEVILLE.

Pineville, Ky., June 22—Lee Turner, of Quarter House fame, was landed in jail at this place by officers from Jacksboro, Tenn., where he was arrested several days ago and held for requisition papers.

There are two indictments against him in this county as accessory before the fact to the murder of Deputy Sheriff Charles Cecil and of John Doyle in the battle during which Turner's famous saloon was burned and a number of his partisans killed.

His half-brother, Gen. Turner, who was reported to have been killed by Lee, was landed in jail here several days ago to answer the indictment against him for the murder of Doyle and Cecil.

POOR BOSTON.

HUB OF THE UNIVERSE IS SINKING INTO THE SEA.

Boston, Mass., June 22—J. R. Freeman, a former member of the Metropolitan water board, and now consulting member of and engineer for the New York board on additional water supply, in the course of a report on the proposed Charles river dam, makes the statement that "Boston is slowly sinking into the sea, and the harbor bottom tends slowly to become deeper."

All of the territory in and about Boston is slowly sinking to the level of the sea. Apparently this subsidence is at the rate of about one-eighth of an inch per year, an inch in eight years, or a little more than a foot in each 100 years."

HEAVY PENALTIES.

UNCLE SAM ALLOWS NO DAMAGE DONE BURIAL BOXES.

Few people realize the heavy penalties that may be imposed for mutilating or interfering in any way with the rural route mail boxes. In the United States court at Springfield, Ill., a few days ago the driver of a Standard Oil wagon in Washington county, who for fun had tried his rifle on a rural route box, got a strong lecture, $200 fine and ninety days in jail as his sentence; in another case a young fellow got drunk and tried his revolver on one of the boxes and his punishment was sixty days in jail. The difference in the cases was that the first was a man who knew better and was on good wages; the other a reckless boy without means to pay a cent of fine and not the years to have experience.

TWO CASES DECIDED

Louisville Jury Gives Man 15,000 for Broken Back.

Memphis Court Decides Man Learned the Road Was Not a Passenger.

BOTH ARE IMPORTANT CASES

William Barrett, a locomotive fireman, was awarded $15,000 in Judge Mair's court at Louisville, the cause of action being the breaking of plaintiff's neck. The breaking occurred in Muhlenberg county last November, when two Illinois Central trains ran into each other. Barrett, who was firing one of the engines, jumped, with the result that the fourth vertebra was shattered. Barrett was given prompt attention and his life was saved. He sued his former employer, the I. C., and Robert Williams, engineer of the engine colliding with the one on which Barrett was running. He asked for $25,000 damages, and was in court during the trial.

Dr. A. M. Cartledge, testifying for the defendant, said he thought the plaintiff would be as good as new if given proper care. The court instructed the jury to find for the plaintiff in proportion to the extent and nature of the injury sustained. The jury was inclined to take the breaking of a neck quite seriously.

The wreck occurred at Central City, and was the one in which Engineer Wm. Bethel of the city was killed.

A legal question of great interest to practicing attorneys and upon which hinged the verdict in a $15,000 damage suit was decided in favor of the Illinois Central railroad by Judge Hammund in United States court at Memphis.

The case was brought for damages in the amount of $15,000 by Fred Hautzicker, as administrator of the estate of Fred Ferday, who was killed on the Illinois Central railroad near Rives, Tenn., nearly a year ago.

Ferday was an applicant for a position as flagman or brakeman. He received a permit, in the form of a telegram, from Trainmaster O. M. Sewell, instructing crews of freight trains to permit him to ride with them until he learned the duties of the position he sought. On June 2, 1902, Ferday was ordered to report to Fulton to stand a physical examination. While on the way to Fulton a wreck occurred and Ferday was killed.

Judge Hammond decided that Ferday was not a passenger, but a fellow servant, and directed a verdict for the railroad company.

TRROUBLES IN PLENTY.

PRESIDENT WEILLE EVEN ENVIRES THE UMPIRE, HE SAYS.

President Ben Weille of the Paducah Baseball association says he envies even the umpire his peace of mind. Col. Weille is kept an hour answering the telephone at home and at the store that he is seriously thinking of taking it out or going to some summer resort for the balance of the baseball season.

All manner of questions are asked him at all hours. Some of them are:

"Have the new players arrived?"

"Who won the game today?"

"What will be the line-up for tomorrow?"

"Going to play a double-header today?"

"Say, how many men did Hedges strike out yesterday?"

"Is that Col. Ben Weille? Well, have you signed blank?"

These are only a few. Besides being pestered with questions he is rung up and offered much gratititous advice. The most exasperating experience he has had, however, was a few nights ago when the telephone rang at midnight at his home and he was aroused from his peaceful slumbers, thinking someone must be dead or the store had been burglarized.

"Well, what is it?" he asked.

"Say, who's going to pitch tomorrow?" was the reply.

Col. Weille was stampeded for a minute, but philosophically concluding that he was already up and it would do no good to saw the fellow off, he told the unknown nocturnal inquirer who was going to pitch and went back to his support.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do, it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. With a grave bow the oriental diplomat said: "My countrymen take so many in order that they may find in all of them the beauties and accomplishments of one such young lady as you."

"Oh, yes," coincided a bon vivant in the group, "that's a well-known fact. Indeed, I often cut my finger to see whether I've had enough."

All money over and above the expenses of teachers will be given to the Kentucky Building at the Exposition. Every voter thus gives the satisfaction of knowing a worthy cause and important object has been aided. At the same time a favorite teacher has received recognition. Contest conducted under auspices of Educational Exhibit Committee of Kentucky Fair Association, the organization formed to raise $100,000 for a Kentucky Building and full display of the State's products and resources at the Fair, the legislature having failed to make an appropriation for the State, whether teacher in public or private schools, or of faculty of academy, college or university, medical, dental or theological institution, protestant or catholic denominational school, is eligible to election. Members of the Educational Exhibit Committee alone excepted.

Names of all school children voting to be enrolled in the Kentucky Building at the Exposition will be given to the Association for the purpose of an educational exhibit occupying 2,000 square feet of space in the building of the State's history. The Association wants the greatest international event in the world's history. The teachers chosen will be lucky indeed in being tendered this trip to the Fair. Every county elects its own most popular educator. The county outside of Jefferson casting the largest number of votes will be allowed to send two teachers—the most popular and the second most popular.

TRE VOTES WILL BE TEN CENTS EACH, TEN CONSTITUTING A BALLOT. Atten cents each every school child in the State will be able to cast at least one vote for his or her favorite teacher. But the voting will not be confined to school children.

PARENTS OF PUPILS OR ANY OF THEIR FRIENDS MAY VOTE. The purpose of the Association is to elect the most popular school teacher in each county, as so considered by the public generally, as well as by the personnel of the educational committee. All money over and above the expenses of teachers will be credited with his or her vote. If one person desires to cast ten votes, it may be done by writing his or her name on one of the spaces and remitting one dollar. It is not required that the name of the person voting be given at all. All of the spaces for voters' names may be left blank. The Association wants, however, to enroll in the Kentucky Building at St. Louis next year the name of every child who cast one or more votes in the contest. Pupils are asked therefore to sign their names plainly to the ballot.

ALL EXPENSES OF THE TEACHERS WILL BE PAID BY THE ASSOCIATION. This will include railroad transportation from Louisville to St. Louis and return, board at one of the best hotels in the city for six days and admission to all the attractions.

THREE PARTIES WILL TAKE THE LEAD IN THE POPULAR TEACHERS to make the trip more attractive and more enjoyable. Each of these parties will consist of forty (40) teachers. The Association has decided to allow two teachers—the most popular and the second most popular—to go from that county—Jefferson excepted—which casts the greatest number of votes in the contest.

ALL TEACHERS IN THE STATE STAND ON AN EQUAL FOOTING in this contest. The teacher with only twenty pupils may receive more votes than the teacher with five or six times as many enrolled in his or her school, because the voting is not confined to children. The public will be an important factor.

Votes may be cast by any person who taught school during 1902 or is teaching now. This gives the Association a wide field of pupils, school children, who closed in November or December, the opportunity to be voted for during the vacation period.

Correct Summer Clothing The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and belt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. We show the new Irish Donegal Cloths, Cheviots and Home-spuns in coats and pants for men and young men

THE OPERA SEASON

It Comes to a Close in Paducah
After Four Weeks.

Manager English Was Plucky and Is Reported to Have Lost Heavily.

The Boston Ideal Opera company, under the management of Mr. John Havens, closed its four weeks' engagement here last night after the presentation of "The Grand Duchess." The company divided here, a portion going to New York and a few going to Indiana, where Mr. Havens has been booked for several weeks.

Frank Nelson, a manager who has been booking for the summer season at Jamestown, N. Y., secured the greater portion of the singers, a few remaining with Manager Havens. Those who go to New York are Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCrumish, John Oantor, Harry Trappart, musical director, R. Ed Mayo, Mountjoy Walker, Teddy McCann, Weston, Falcon and Misses Godfrey, Estelle, Mangon and several other chorus girls and men. Mr. Havens will take Miss Oakland with him and will organize a company out of St. Louis and begin playing in Indiana, working straight through to New York.

Mr. Nelson will take his company to Kingstown, N. Y., for two weeks and will then go to Jamestown for the remainder of the summer season.

Manager James E. English deserves great credit for the pluck and enterprise he has displayed in conducting his opera season to a close. He is reported to have lost about $2,500 on it owing to the heavy expense and poor patronage.

Tonight the Seward Co. opens a four weeks' engagement here. This company comes here from Springfield, Ill., where it has just closed a forty-two weeks' engagement, and is one of the best repertoire companies on the road. The company carries a fine illustrated song apparatus and has several fine specialty men.

Festive Negroes Shoot While the Trolley Is Off.

Motorman Flavins Walters and Conductor McNeal had an exciting experience on a Rowlandtown street car Saturday night while preparing to return to the city with a load of colored passengers who had been dancing at Rowlandtown.

McNeal had taken the trolley off and the minute darkness prevailed pistols began firing and bullets rattled in every direction. Walters was in the front part of the car when the first shots rang out, and thinking the men were shooting at McNeal, left his post and ran around to investigate. The street car men ducked under the car and negroes began to unload with the greatest haste possible to imagine. The trolley was finally put on as soon as the firing ceased and the crowd was taken to town. No one was struck by the bullets and it is supposed some of the men, who were full of bug juice, fired into the air "just to start something."

NOTHING MORE.

OPINION WILL HAVE TO BE RECEIVED BEFORE DECISION IS UNDERSTOOD.

The opinion in the 10:30 closing law published exclusively in the Sun Saturday has not been elucidated by later reports, and the attorneys are anxiously waiting for the complete opinion. It is not understood how Judge Husbands could be reversed and the ordinance sustained except in two instances, which is just as the judge decided it.

Pat's Argument.

Marshall P. Wilder tells of a certain Irishman, famed for hard drinking, who was asked why he did not take just one drink each day and let it go at that. "Shure," answered Pat, "what good would one be? A bird can't fly with one wing."

Coroner Signs the Certificate After Money Is Raised for Burial.

The body of Henry Tidwell, colored, who was shot and killed at Chapman's camp on the Cairo extension of the Illinois Central Friday, was brought to the city Saturday night and taken to Andy Watkins' undertaking establishment.

There was nothing to indicate that the coroner of Ballard county, in which the shooting occurred, held an inquest, and there was no money here with which to bury the man. The body was here, however, and it was suggested that the county bury it, but Coroner Peal, who had no right to hold an inquest, declined to order it buried at the expense of the taxpayers.

Later on he learned that the coroner of Ballard county had held an inquest, or made a bluff at it, and agreed to sign the death certificate if enough money was secured to bury the remains. It seems the deceased had money coming to him from the railroad contractors, and with this the remains were buried here yesterday, the coroner signing the certificate, as the remains could not be kept.

The man who shot him is still at large.

Hop Little, who is temporarily engaged at Cairo, was here today on business.
